READING THIS DOCUMENT

Outlined pills are live download links. Contrast badges use WCAG 2.x. "Proof first" values need a printer proof before production.

01 Official logo & usage

Use the artwork exactly as supplied — never redraw, stretch, recolour or crop the badge.

If only black and white are available, use the black version on light backgrounds and the white version on dark backgrounds.

Keep clear space around the badge of at least x on every side, where x is the full height of the ribbon element, navy outline included (171.7 units, 14.47% of the logo width).

Don't place the badge over busy photography or patterns that fight the artwork.

Light backgrounds	use the main full-colour logo.
Dark backgrounds	use the white outline version (the dark-background variant).
Single colour	when we get to choose the one colour, navy is preferred.
Print	40 mm wide. Keeps the 7.8-unit keyline at 0.26 mm; at 25 mm it drops to 0.16 mm and the lace and letter details to 0.07 mm, below what presses hold.
Screen	160 px wide. Every line stays at or above 1 px. Below 160 px the detail fills in on every version, including single colour — use the small-size mark files (the same badge, trimmed and pre-sized) and check legibility.
Embroidery / patch (full colour)	90 mm wide. Stitching needs about 1 mm per detail; at 60 mm the keyline is 0.39 mm. One-colour embroidery can go to 60 mm with a digitiser stitch-out (see Single colour).
Don't stretch or squash	The badge always keeps its supplied proportions.

Don't recolour	No tints, gradients or new colours. One-colour use only as shown on the Single colour page: the supplied Navy, Black and White files, or an event-colour ink signed off by the designer.
Don't crop	The whole diamond stays visible, banner to waves.
Don't rotate	The badge sits upright on its point, never tilted.
Don't use busy backgrounds	No photography or patterns that fight the artwork.
Don't lose contrast	Full colour never sits on Caribbean Sky or similar mid-tones.
Don't add effects	No drop shadows, glows, bevels or outlines on the resting logo. Motion graphics may use light and shadow for depth while the badge moves.
Don't retype the lettering	The words inside the badge are artwork, not live text.

02 Single-colour logos

Navy is preferred when the ink can be chosen. Black on light grounds and white on dark grounds when only black/white is available. Use supplied files, never recolour the full-colour badge.

Keep clear space around the badge of at least x on every side, where x is the full height of the ribbon element, navy outline included (171.7 units, 14.47% of the logo width).

04 Small-size mark

The full San Juan Bowl badge, trimmed to its edges and sized for small uses: social avatars, app icons, browser tabs, merch tags, video watermarks. Fine details soften below 160 px — check legibility at the size you use.

This is the real badge, not a redraw — never swap in lettering on its own as the logo.

Use the supplied file at the size needed; never redraw, simplify or recolour it.

On Bowl Navy, use the navy icon/avatar files (dark-background badge).

Above 160 px (or 40 mm in print), use the full badge files with clear space.

07 Colour balance & readable pairings

HEX, RGB and HSL values are exact, taken from the supplied artwork — use them as-is on screen and web.

CMYK values are the inks set in the master EPS/AI files, so they match what the vector files print. They are not proofed: always run a vendor proof before print and adjust on press if needed.

Pantone (spot) references are matched by the print vendor from the supplied artwork — never substitute a guessed swatch.

Body text on San Juan Bowl print is solid black (100K), same as every TransPerfect print piece.

08 Typography & naming

Supporting type is Geist, the TransPerfect house face — Geist Bold for headlines, Geist Regular for body. The lettering inside the badge is part of the artwork and is never retyped.

Geist only — no script, slab or novelty faces, even for a sports or island feel.

Headlines in Geist Bold, sentence case. Labels may be uppercase with open tracking.

Never set type inside the badge or on its banner; the badge lettering is artwork.

Keep type outside the logo's clear space (1x on every side).
